BROOKE MOSCOW SUBVERSION TRIAL OPENS 22 JULY

Moscow TASS International Service in English 1449 GMT 20 July 1965--L

(Text) Moscow, 20 July--The trial of Gerald Brooke, a British subject, will open in Moscow on Thursday, 22 July.

As reported earlier, Gerald Brooke, a 27 year-old Russian language teacher, is accused of subversive anti-Soviet activities on the territory of the USSR. He was arraigned for trial under the first part of article 70 of the criminal code of the Russian Federation.

Gerald Brooke, who came to the Soviet Union on instructions of an anti-Soviet organization, was caught redhanded by the USSR State Security Committee. The trial will be held in the Moscow city court.
